A BIT MORE ABOUT US

■ Victory Workspace Consultants are workspace specialists that focus on optimising workplace environments.

This exciting new venture was formed through common goals and ambitions of creating new and exciting workspaces, rejuvenating existing workspaces as well as specialising in project management, move management and the supply of new office furniture. We even go as far as removing your existing furniture and managing the disposal. We offer a one stop shop solution meaning that from initial consultation through the design process we take the preconceived stresses of workspace reinvigoration and transform your workspace leaving you to focus on running your business.

We are in partnership with one of the largest independent office furniture suppliers in the UK! With this in mind one of our key strengths is that we have access to thousands of manufacturers which opens the door when it comes to a vast product range, the competitive edge when it comes to turnaround times and budget to match your needs no matter how specific.

WHAT WE CAN DO FOR YOU?

- Workspace Consultancy is an information gathering and reporting process that enables us to help you identify new strategies that make the workplace more efficient.

Workspace Consultancy is an information gathering and reporting process that enables us to help you identify new strategies that make the workplace more efficient.

Creating the correct workspace for your company is vital!

It's a proven fact that an inspiring office, that is creative, coupled with a positive vibe not only makes your space more enticing to your current staff, but ultimately makes them more efficient and leads to greater productivity.

Just think, by enabling all of your team to fulfil their individual potentials it can only maximise operational efficiency and in turn business success.

We understand that every business is different regardless of what you do. Even in the same industry, a business has its own function that is individual to itself, this is what makes up your business to be what it is, the business DNA.

A successful office design is achieved by allowing us to delve into the heart of your business, the understanding of your culture is key.

By understanding the culture of your business we are able to channel our energy in the right direction.

Understanding the DNA means we are able to see how your business functions at its optimum level. We are happy to talk to your management team and internal users to assess their requirements. At which point we will also need to identify adjacencies, collaboration patterns, use of meeting rooms and storage requirements.

We go the extra mile to ensure you are happy with your work environment.

— INTERIOR — DESIGN & SPACE PLANNING

Interior Design & Space Planning sector

In brief, Brief! To Expand - the Correct Brief

A fundamental element of any design is having the correct brief! In order for our visions to align we have to understand how your company works, how the cogs turn. We have an avid interest in delving into the heart of what you do! Whether the Victory Workspace Consultants start line is a blank canvas or a workspace uplift, giving a new look to your existing workspace, our experienced Interior Design & Space Planning team have the unrivalled vision that's necessary to create, function, flow and flexibility in your workspace.

We want to understand your culture. It's this culture which we specifically design for. We understand that every business is different regardless of what you do. Having this valuable data means our interior design & space planning team can set to work to not only create a fantastic place to work but ensure your staffs wellbeing, creativity & engagement is enhanced.

“ We understand that every business is different regardless of what you do so we strive to find the best solution for your business. ”

FURNITURE SUPPLIERS

It's more than just tables and chairs you know!

Your furniture, your culture, your stamp.

A company's furniture plays a unique role, it stands at the interface between your premises, your organisation, your employees and the way they work, relax and socialise.

We're in partnership with one of the largest independent office furniture suppliers in the UK!

With this in mind one of our key strengths is that we have access to thousands of manufacturers which opens the door when it comes to a vast product range, the competitive edge when it comes to turnaround times and budget to match your needs no matter how specific.
